

The Boys Are Back

By: Kenzie Davis

Cue the music! The boys are back!! Boys basketball kicked off their season on Friday, December 6 with a win against Middletown. The final score was 46-44. The very next day, the boys took on a nationally ranked prep school, Legacy Charter (a South Carolina prep school) in the afternoon at Northern Kentucky University. Unfortunately, the boys were unable to take home the win on this game, the final score being 34-44 Legacy Charter. Despite the loss, the boys gained much from the experience. The game was a part of a set played this weekend to raise money for Ryan Custer, a basketball player who is now paralyzed following a spinal injury. On top of that, they got to display their skill level and talent while playing in a tough competition.

The varsity team is led by three seniors: Camden Brandt, Tanner Murphy, and Kelen Dietrich. All three have played long before their high school careers. Coach Mike Price is the head coach for the varsity team and is not only working for his team's success on the court but also in life. Coach Price guides his team through many community service events each year.

The biggest west side rivalry will return Tuesday, January 21 as the team takes on Elder High School. Tip-off is at 7:30 pm in the OHHS new gym.
